Brown Rudnick Attorneys Publish
Legal Guide on Contested Valuation in Corporate Bankruptcy

Book published by Collier provides authoritative advice from experts in the field

Boston, MA, November 21, 2011 – Brown Rudnick, an AmLaw 200 firm with offices in the United States and Europe, today announced that the highly anticipated treatise, Contested Valuation in Corporate Bankruptcy, has been published.

This Collier monograph was developed and edited by three notable Brown Rudnick partners -- Robert J. Stark, Howard L. Siegel & Edward S. Weisfelner -- in the Firm's award-winning Bankruptcy & Corporate Restructuring Group. Written and edited by 40 of the nation's leading lawyers, bankers, consultants and distressed investors, Contested Valuation in Corporate Bankruptcy is an indispensable and authoritative treatise addressing the most complex valuation issues. The book thoroughly discusses valuation as a legal principle, exploring the present state of relevant case law. It explains the various methodologies employed by experts valuing assets and enterprises in chapter 11 cases, and provides detailed treatment of the means and approaches effectively used to litigate and settle valuation questions in corporate bankruptcy.

Contested Valuation in Corporate Bankruptcy is available for purchase by calling 800.223.1940 or at www.lexisnexis.com/store.
